

Moon Child

Reiko Shimizu

in the previous volumes of

Moon Child

we learned:

Jimmy has matured into a beautiful mermaid named Benjamin, and spends most of her time in that form. But she still wants to evolve like she did before—what she came to Earth as a young boy. Her mother chose to love a human, and Selva's children are prophesied to determine the fate of the world. But prophecies are, by definition, unclear: Does Jimmy save the world by rejecting her mother's example and mating with a mermaid? Or by gaining the human love Selva was denied?

JIMMY

ART

Art is having a hard time dealing with the "new Jimmy." His former girlfriend, Holly, is mad that he treats Benjamin so kindly, because she doesn't know that Benjamin is really Jimmy. Meanwhile, Art also has to deal with the supernatural powers the mer-people have. He doesn't believe in vikings or ghosts, but he can't deny that strange things are always happening around his ward.

Shonach has a problem: He's so in love with Benjamin that ALL other women seem to be wearing alien masks. But his love seems doomed, since Jimmy is still in love with Art. Recently, Shonach's been showing interest in another one of the Little Mermaid's children. Will his growing affection for Seth erase his love for Benjamin?

SHONACH

Seth is determined to protect Benjamin, even though that runs his own chance to mature into a beautiful mermaid and bear Shonoch's eggs. He's tormented by visions of disaster—horrible events that the mer-people see as evidence that his siblings are evil. But he knows that he and Jimmy are innocent...and he hasn't seen Teruto in months.

SETH

GIL OWEN / TERUTO

That's because Teruto made a deal with the undersea hag, and has taken possession of Gil Owen, son of a powerful family. He used his new influence to set up a Solist Tour of Russia so he can interfere in Art and Jimmy's relationship. In order to convert Seth's future, he's determined to run Benjamin's life...or even kill her!

Rita has only been Gil's assistant for a few months, but she's been in love with him for years. She's noticed changes in his personality, but she's worried that they're caused by ill health. She believes she was invited on the tour to keep his appointment calendar. Little does she know he's using her to boost his psychic mermaid powers!

RITA

BENJAMIN

Benjamin is hoping this tour brings her closer to Art, that it gives her a chance to accept her in her new, mature form. Can he overcome his memories of young Jimmy? And will his distrust of her mermaid powers contain a wedge between them?

WILL TERUTO'S PLAN WORK? FIND OUT IN JUNE!

Moon Child

Volume 11

By Naoko Shimizu. Benjamin and Seth try to enjoy themselves on the tour, but are plagued by troubles instead. They hope to prevent Teruto from sabotaging a nuclear power plant. But he won't be stopped — he's willing to sacrifice anything to get his way. His only concession to reason is to try and get his beloved brother Seth out of the disaster zone...but his attempt to kidnap Seth and return him to New York may backfire!
